

May - June rides

Take advantage of the nice spring weather by borrowing an AccèsVélo bicycle to explore the streets of Montreal. May and June have plenty of cultural activities all around town.

May 1 to June 6	Festival Accès Asie Where : Several locations in Montréal Info : (514) 523-1047	<ul style="list-style-type: none">From the sacred, profane, ancient, modern and classical to the popular, this Festival of multi-disciplinary delights, features performers from music, visual arts, new media, dance and film to celebrate the history and the cultural richness of Canadians of Asian origins.
May 20 to June 6	Festival Transamériques Where : Several locations in Montréal Info : (514) 842-0704	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Featuring some twenty companies from here and abroad, the Festival offers bold and innovative programming in dance and theatre.
May 27 to 31	Mutek Where : Several locations in Montréal Info : (514) 871-8646	<ul style="list-style-type: none">An annual gathering dedicated to emerging forms of electronic music and sound design in the era of new technologies.
May 28 to 31	Le marché de la poésie de Montréal Where : Place Gérald-Godin Info : (514) 526-6251	<ul style="list-style-type: none">This international meeting place features public readings, performances, guided tours, forums and much more.
May 28 to 31	F'Estival de « Main » Where: St. Laurent Boulevard between Sherbrooke and Mont-Royal Info: 514-286-0334	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Entertainment galore, music and an outdoor dance floor.
May 31 to June 7	La Féria du vélo de Montréal Where : Several locations in Montréal Info : (514) 521-8687	<ul style="list-style-type: none">The bicycle is celebrated for eight days, in the best cycling city in North America, according to Bicycling magazine.
June 3 to 7	Le mondial de la bière Where: Windsor Station: Salle des pas perdus and outside in the Windsor Courtyard Info: 514-722-9640	<ul style="list-style-type: none">A festival that will please not only beer lovers, but also bons vivants and people who like to discover new tastes!
June 11 to 14	Nuit blanche sur tableau noir Where: Mont-Royal Avenue Info: 514-522-3797	<ul style="list-style-type: none">A street festival dedicated to visual arts: street painting, music, children's activities and more.
June 11 to 21	Festival Présence autochtone Where : Place Émilie-Gamelin Info : (514) 278-4040	<ul style="list-style-type: none">A multidisciplinary festival highlighting Amerindian and Inuit cultures through artistic events.
June 12 to 14	Festival Eurêka! Where : Old Montréal and Old Port Info : (514) 496-4724	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Huge outdoor celebration of science and technology.
June 17 to 20	Montreal Fashion & Design Festival Where : McGill College Avenue Info : (514) 876-1499	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Street activities and special presentations that pay tribute to fashion and design.
June 25 to 28	Annual Montreal Baroque Music Festival Where: Old Montreal Info: 514-845-7171	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Montreal Baroque celebrates the 350e anniversary of Henry Purcell's birth. The composer, according to a rumor, would have succumbed to a chocolate overdose. Consequently, this year topic is Death by Chocolate.

To see:

The Château Ramezay Museum is proud to present a new exhibition "The Great Bike Tour" in conjunction with the festivities surrounding the 25th anniversary of the "Tour de l'Île de Montréal. From May 5 to September 7, 2009, any bicycle enthusiasts will enjoy discovering the many facets of the bike, from the Penny Farthing to the BIXI.

Discovery circuit:

Use your lunch hour to discover Place d'Armes, the Old Port, Chapelle Notre-Dame-de-Bonsecours and Chinatown via a circuit where Montreal's history and cultural diversity come to life. Check out the Parcours 3: De la Place d'Armes au Quartier Chinois brochure for directions and information on these destinations.

Do you have any activity suggestions? Would you like to receive this calendar this summer?
Contact us at accesvelo@voyagezfute.ca.
